

CTSO Alaska

Advisor Training

Join us for a one day training for local/state officers or a two day training for advisors. This is being provided at no cost to you and/or your local and state officers by CTSO Alaska. A lunch will be provided on both days. Your responsibility will be transportation and lodging if needed. Registration and other details to follow shortly.

Day 1 – September 13, 2018

Local Advisor trainer, To be announced

- So you want to start a CTSO Chapter?
- What is Step 1?
  - Conducting Meetings
  - Fundraising ideas and tips
  - Budgeting for three events
- Community Connections
  - Training
  - Support
- Community Service
  - Service projects
  - Volunteerism
- Leadership Skills
  - Local
  - State
  - National
- Curriculum Integration/Competitive Events

Frank Kitchen, Consultant and Speaker

Student Officer Edition

- “Follow the Leader!” The 7 Qualities Needed to be a Productive Leader.
  - Definition and purpose of leadership
  - Seven qualities possessed by highly productive leaders
  - Effective motivation and training techniques
  - How to create a unique leadership style
- “Trick or Treat?” The 4R’s to a Sweet Organization
  - Recruit
  - Recognize
  - Retain
  - Reward

Day 2 – September 14, 2018

Frank Kitchen, Consultant and Speaker

Advisor Edition

- “Follow the Leader!” The 7 Qualities Needed to be a Productive Leader.
  - Definition and purpose of leadership
  - Seven qualities possessed by highly productive leaders
  - Effective motivation and training techniques
  - How to create a unique leadership style
- “Trick or Treat? The 4R’s to a Sweet Organization
  - Recruit
  - Recognize
  - Retain
  - Reward

Details

- Items provided
  - Training
  - Materials
  - Lunch
- Your Costs
  - Transportation
  - Lodging if needed
  - Other travel needs
- CEU Credits Available
  - First Semester – 2 credits
  - Second Semester – 1 credit

Specific Information concerning registration, meeting time and place will follow shortly.