EDUCATORS RISING ALASKA STUDENT COMMITMENT

The goal of Educators Rising Alaska (Educators Rising AK) program is to explore the career of becoming an educator and to provide the support with which you can begin the process. To serve you with a solid academic and collegiate program, we must have a commitment from you. Please carefully review and agree to the following criteria.

I understand that during my participation in the Educators Rising AK program I will:

- Complete high school
- Attend academic and college advising services
- Complete the Educators Rising Alaska CTE Pathway (four courses) during your high school career if available at your school
- Complete the Educators Rising Micro-credentials (five digital badges) during your high school career if available at your school
- Take the ParaPro Assessment during your senior year

To the best of my knowledge, all the information I have provided in this application is true.

STUDENT GUIDELINES AND BEHAVIOR CODE OF CONDUCT

CTSO Conference and Educators Rising Alaska Academy are academic extra-curricular activities. In order to maintain a safe, fun, learning environment for the benefit of all participants, students must agree to abide by all of the guidelines in this behavior code of conduct:

- Students are expected to act in a mature and appropriate manner at all times.
- No non-participant visitors are to be allowed on the trip.
- Students are to be respectful of the hotel staff who are trying to do their work at the facilities where the field-trip activities are taking place. Please keep voices low when moving through hallways, and avoid clustering in groups around entrances and exits.
- Students will not use alcohol or other non-prescribed drugs, which includes smoking and chewing tobacco.
- Students will pay for phone calls and any damage they cause.
- Cell phone use, including texting, is prohibited during Educators Rising/CTSO activities.
- Students are expected to honor the schedule, participate in all activities, and remain with their group's chaperone or attending adult at all times.
- While at the hotel, students must avoid disturbing other hotel guests. [A few examples of disruptive behavior include: shouting from the balconies, running on the stairs and in hallways, turning the volume on televisions up too high, and slamming doors. Students should also avoid loud conversations or activities late at night, or early in the morning hours.]
- If weather or other circumstances delay the trip home, students will agree to remain under the supervision of their chaperone.
- Students on medication should speak to their district chaperone one-on-one regarding what medications they are taking and why.
- Students who have valuables should keep them on their person at all times. If they are concerned about losing their valuables, they should speak with their chaperone one-on-one.

By signing this document, I indicate that I have read with my parent/guardian and understand the Student Guidelines and Behavioral Code of Conduct for Educators Rising Alaska supported events.

I understand that not following these guidelines could result in my being sent home at the expense of my parent/guardian.
