

CTSO Alaska

Officer Training Details

Join us for a one day leadership training for state and local officers. This is being provided at no cost to you or your local and state association. A lunch will be provided. You will be responsible for your own transportation except as noted below.

Officer Training, Frank Kitchen

- "Follow the Leader!" The 7 Qualities Needed to be a Productive Leader.
 - Definition and purpose of leadership
 - Seven qualities possessed by highly productive leaders
 - Effective motivation and training techniques
 - How to create a unique leadership style
- "Trick or Treat? The 4R's to a Sweet Organization"
 - Recruit
 - Recognize
 - Retain
 - Reward

Frank Kitchen is known as "The Leadership Connoisseur." He's a Fundraiser Strategist, Consultant and Keynote Speaker. He educates, elevates and empowers professionals, educators, entrepreneurs, volunteers and students to be positive Difference Makers and Life Changers.

His keynote speeches, educational workshops and consultations have inspired individuals and organizations around the world. He is only the 3rd African American to earn the Benefit Auctioneer Specialist (BAS) designation from the National Auctioneers Association (NAA).

When he's not on stage as a speaker, he works with numerous nonprofits and schools across the United States to raise millions of dollars to support their philanthropic causes.

Meeting Space and Time

Marriott Hotel

- 820 W 7th Avenue
- Anchorage, AK 99501
- 907-279-8000

Lunch Provided

- A sandwich bar will be provided each day as part of the training.

Schedule

- September 13th
 - Local/State Officer Training in room TBA

Transportation

- Busing from the valley will be provided. All students will be boarding the bus at Mat-Su Career Tech at 6:15 am.
- Anchorage Students will need to provide their own transportation